GHS students win honors at fair

The annual DeKalb County Free Fall Fair brought honors to many GHS students and fun to everyone. The students were dismissed at 11 a.m. to experience during rides, cotton candy, and upset stomachs. Swing Choir entered competition and did an excellent job, but to the surprise of everyone, did not place. Pam Smock and Beth Van Zile competed in the Miss DeKalb Pageant. For the first time in eight years, a Garrett girl won the coveted title. Beth Van Zile was crowned the 1980 Miss DeKalb County after competing in interviews, bathing suit, talent, and evening gown competition. In the 4-H barns Brenda Malcolm's entries were awarded Grand Champion Hog and Mare. Glen Malcolm received Grand Champion Steer. Grand Champion Gilt went to Darren Christlieb and Reserve Grand Champion Steer went to Robbie Knott. The fair proved to be a great first day off.

Siples, Pepple win Homecoming

Autumn Homecoming, "Special Touch," broke an old tradition when Junior Greg Siples was awarded Homecoming King. Laurie Pepple was crowned Queen. A tradition was also added to the event, when last year's winners Katie Kilgore and Nate Hoeffel awarded the King and Queen their honors.

The annual ceremony took place on the new football field, where the candidates proudly stood.

The guys received a yellow rose boutineer and the girls received a long stemmed yellow rose. Laurie was presented red roses and Greg received a plaque.

The Sophomore class again, for the third year in a row, won the prize for the best decorated car.

Royalty selection process change

This year like many past Homecomings proved to be successful, though a new selection method was adopted. The candidates were elected and voted on by students of each class. Elected to represent the senior class were Linda
Scott, Scott Miller, Kerri Pinkerton,
Tom Maggert, Cyndy Sparks and Tim Herzer.

Underclassmen representatives were juniors Beth Vanderbosch and Mark Hensinger, sophomores Sandy Sparks and Todd Perry, freshmen Shelly Dunham and Bob DeWitt.

Presenting the honors were captains of both boys and girls basketball teams. Queen Cyndy Sparks received a bouquet of roses and King Tim Herzer was awarded a plaque.

Students enjoy OEA Semi- Formal

The annual O.E.A. Semi-Formal was held in the J.E. Ober Auditorium on Nov. 4, 1980. Unlike previous years, the dance's theme was that of Autumn instead of Winter. The Auditorium was decorated with pumpkins and cornstalks and the entranceway was highlighted with fall colored streamers to accent the ''Harvest Sunset'' theme.

The band Southroad provided the evening's entertainment and door prizes were awarded during intermission. Max Hambidge of Hambidge House of Photography photographed the couples attending the dance. Kathy Sims, Anita Baidinger and Joan DeKonick were nominated for Miss O.E.A. Queen, Joan DeKonick was crowned the winner by Wendy Maggert, O.E.A. Vice-President. The Semi-Formal again provided couples with an evening of dancing and romancing.

Mr. Pegelow wins 'Miss DeKalb' at pep session

Spirit week brings out great enthusiasm among GHS students. Spectacle Day, Hat Day, and Freaky Friday featured events to promote school spirit. The climax of the week was a pep session in which a 'Miss DeKalb' pageant was held. Mr. Wiemer, Mr. Johnston, Mr. Gibson, Mr. Giegold, and Mr. Pegelow dressed up as women and attempted to be contestants for this event. When the votes were tallied, Mr. Pegelow won the honor of 'Miss DeKalb'.

Like a Favorite Book

Sometimes a friend is like a favorite book; You know his every thought and word and look—And yet you like him handy on your shelf, Because, somehow, he warms your deeper self.

He may not hold the thrill that others do, But just because he's genuine and true, Like some fine masterpiece beyond compare, When all the rest are gone, he'll still be there.

Yes, some friends are a lot like favorite books; They don't depend upon their fame or looks. It's what's inside—their deeper basic worth—That makes us hold some friends the best on earth.

All-School play proves 'You can't take it with you'

What do pet snakes, a xylophone, fireworks, a drunk actress, ballet, and insanity have in common? Absolutely nothing, except they were all part of the daily lives of the Vanderholf family.

Despite many setbacks during the course of their schedule, the G.H.S. Thespian Troupe put on their production of "You Can't Take It With You."

The play takes place in the home of Martin Vanderholf, an aged man who one day thirty-five years ago, decided to quit his job because he ``wasn't having any fun.''. The members of the household include Penny, who writes plays because one day a typewriter was delivered to her house by accident, Ed Carmichael, who has the habit of printing everything and anything, Essie Carmichael, who attempts ballet twelve hours a day, Mr. Sychamore, who makes fireworks in the basement for a living, Mr. Depinna, the iceman, who decided just to stay three years ago, and Alice, the only sane family member who supports the entire household.

The story takes off when Alice wants to marry the son of Mr. and Mrs. Kirby, two very well to do people, but refuses to because she realizes that the two families just wouldn't mix. After much persuasion by Mr. Vanderholf, Alice and Tony decide to get married and the two families live happily ever after.

All-school cast presents 'Little Mary Sunshine'

When 'Little Mary Sunshine'' opened at the Orpheum Theatre in New York in 1959, it made this 'new musical about an old operetta,'' the surprise hit of the season.

In the operetta, good meant good, bad meant bad, and wide eyed innocence following close behind. In the GHS production, the plot, characters, and music are simple and direct. As the show progresses the obvious spoofing of the operetta's simpleness is evident.

The story, set high in the Colorado Rocky Mountains in the Colorado Inn, begins as Little Mary Sunshine convinces her adopted father (Chief Brown Bear) to send his grievances over a land dispute to Washington to be settled by law rather than tomahawk.

Meanwhile, Little Mary is about to lose her Inn because she can't meet her mortgage payments. During this time, Capt. Jim Warington and his rangers have been sent on a secret mission to capture a notorious band of Indians. The same afternoon, Billy and Nancy discuss their former relationship while the young ladies arrive from Eastchester Finishing School in the east.

As the saga unfolds all the characters become actively involved in the many trials and tribulations of the fast moving events.

The show ends on a happy note as all the problems of the characters finally become resolved.

JH Drama Club solves mystery

Junior High Drama Club entertained its audience on October 25 in the Ober Auditorium with the classic, spine-chilling murder mystery, "The Butler Did It".

hosted a party at her mansion on a private island off the coast of San Francisco where several mystery writers were quests.

The guests were to assume the personalities of their fictional characters. Miss Maple arranged all sorts of amusing ''incidents'' including a fake murder.

Later on during the climax of the party, a real murder was committed. An outraged Miss Maple offered an immense reward to the ''detective'' who could solve the crime and bring the killer to justice.

When the writers were not busy tripping over clues, they were tripping over each other.

As the plot unfolded, the audience learned that the murderer was Haversham, the maid, who turned out to be an escaped convict.

Classes

Vocational program offers wide variety of classes

The vocational department at GHS offered a wide variety of classes during the 1980-81 school year. Some of the classes were auto mechanics, building trades, interdisciplinary co-op, woods, advanced woods, welding, beginning and advanced metals, drafting I and II, adult living, child development, housing, clothing I and II, foods I and II, consumer education and interpersonal relations.

The vocational department also completed the sixth annual building trades house. Drafting students designed the house. Agricultural classes did the landscaping. Home economic classes did the interior decorating and the actual construction was done by the building trades classes.

The vocational department continued to do an excellent job of preparing students for jobs after high school.

The business classes offered at GHS included both preparatory classes for college, such as typing and notehand, and classes that taught skills to be used on the job right after high school.

Typing students learned both speed and accuracy and how to type business letters and term papers. Shorthand and notehand students learned how to take notes quickly in any situation and transcribe them for use.

Accounting students were taught how to keep books for small companies, while advanced accounting students learned about partnership and corporation accounting.

The business classes helped the students prepare for college classes or a job after graduation, as well as helping them in their other classes.

Fine arts students set, reach high goals

The Fine Arts Department at GHS this year has established a new level of achievement for future years. The choirs were involved in many solo and group activities which went to contest and placed at a high level of competition. Choir students have had exposure to all styles of music from jazz, vocal and pop to classical music. Thanks to dedicated Miss Margaret Buttermore, the choirs are greatly improving over the years.

In the art field, the students are becoming more involved and really producing nice work. Art students, throughout the year learn how to sculpture, paint and draw the hard way. An art exhibit was a major event which most art students participated. The drama end of the Fine Arts Department put on the productions "Inherit the Wind" and "Little Mary Sunshine" which the student body enjoyed.

Math department adds second computer

Again this year, all three Health, P.E. and Math Departments were headed by Mr. Richard Capin. One of the major accomplishments of the Math Department is the addition of a second computer. The advantage of a second computer is that more students can get the opportunity to learn to program it. Mr. David Neal taught the course and had 28 juniors and seniors complete the class. The prerequisites for the course are Algebra I, Geometry and personal typing is being recommended.

The Health and P.E. Departments were in charge of teaching students how to stay fit and then actually being healthy. Many gym students participated in various activities such as; bowling, playing basketball, hockey and volleyball. In the health classes, students were taught CPR, how to take a pulse and what to do in many emergencies.

English, science departments offer basics

The English, science and social science departments offer the basic requirements for graduation as well as extra classes for those students who plan to further their education.

The english department offers a fourth year of english called Research, which helps students learn how to use a library properly and how to write term papers.

The social science department offers a choice of government and psychology or economics and sociology to seniors.

The science department requires one class as a minimum. A student may take Applied Life Science, Practical Biology or Academic Biology. For the more serious student, Advanced Biology, Chemistry I and II and Physics is offered.

Bowman sets record: harriers' season improves

Despite a poor showing in the IHSAA sectional, the Railroader's cross country team improved its record over last year's. "Last year we were at the bottom of the barrel," said Coach Robert Novy. "This year we moved one step up the ladder."

The team's total victories increased by three wins against Churubusco, Fremont, and Columbia City. In addition to the regular dual meets, the harriers participated in invitationals at Churubusco, West Noble and South Side.

Their best finish in an invitational was 23rd out of 27 at Churubusco.

A new school record was set by Pete Bowman when he ran the lengthened 3.1 mile course in 17:01.

6-4 gridders depart from NEIAC

"It was a very interesting season. Our record could have been anywhere from 3-7 to 9-1," said head coach John Hutton of the 1980 varsity gridders. With a brand new field and many openings to fill, squad members showed self-discipline and desire in recording the first winning season since 1974, when the team posted an 11-0 record and won the state Class A title.

The Railroaders also placed senior Kent Davis on ALL-NEIAC first team as offensive guard. Five starters received second team honors including Tom Newbauer, Tom Maggert and Erle Andrews at quarterback, split end and defensive end respectively, and juniors Greg

The squad ended their season with a 2-7 record. Since the team members got to use the new practice and game fields the team spirit was greatly improved over last year.

"We didn't win very many of our games, but we did not get blown away either. Our biggest win was against DeKalb with a score of 20 to 6 which really boosted team morale. The players really produced their best offensively and defensively in the game."

Improved statistics highlight frustrating season

Garrett's team statistics proved to be high this season. The girls successfully completed 92% of their sets, 86% of their blocks, 84% of their bumps, and 78% of their spikes.

Lori Vanderbosch, the only senior on the squad, was named to the NEIAC all-conference second team. Junior Kathy Putt also received NEIAC honors by obtaining honorable mention.

"Some of the best games we played did not result in victory. Take South Side as an example, we probably played our best game of the year but the state-ranked Archers were too powerful to overcome," stated senior co-captain Lori Vanderbosch. The Lady Railroaders gained a slight improvement from last year with a combined effort of 7 wins and 15 losses.

Team plays hard, wins respect

Under the direction of new head coach Denny Feagler the 1980-1981 varsity squad compiled a 8-13 record, including sectional games with Leo and DeKalb. "We continued to get better in each game we played", commented coach Feagler.

The senior-dominated team improved as the shooting arm of Mike Delauder (who averaged just under 21 points) of Rick Zolman (183 total) gave the railroaders a winning surge at the end of the season when the Railroaders prevailed in four of their last five outings.

Delauder was named to the All-Conference and All-Area first teams. Rick Zolman earned honorable mention All-Conference.

The Railroaders defeated East Noble by a 10-point margin before entering sectional action where the 'Big Train' trounced Leo and nearly derailed DeKalb in a well-played 54-52 loss.

Girls' B-ball team takes sectional, regional titles

"All twelve young ladies on the team were a credit to their school and community", stated Coach Rocky Pressler.

The girls worked together very well and were constantly helping each other to improve. They made the necessary sacrifices and understood what it means to give 100 percent—100 percent of the time.

This great effort was well worth the hard work, as the girls achieved much success and many honors. Junior Angie Lehman was named All-Conference honorable mention, All-Area honorable mention and received a medal for the most steals. Junior Linda Shull had the most assists and sophomore Renee Winans received All-Area honorable mention.

Senior co-captain, Lori VanDerbosch was named All-Conference honorable mention and All-Area second team. Senior cocaptain, Missy Van Ort was voted most valuable player, received medals for most points, most rebounds, highest field goal and free

By scoring the biggest upset in the girls 1981 Hooser Histeria, the Lady Railroaders captured the hearts of many students and basketball fans throughout the state of Indiana.

Under the coaching of Rocky Pressler the girls defeated stateranked Bishop Luers in the final game of the IHSAA Girl's Basketball Regional.

It was a David and Goliath story all the way. The team was expected to be derailed in sectional competition, but tough games against Hamilton and Fremont followed by a victory over DeKalb Barons earned the Ladies a shot at regionals.

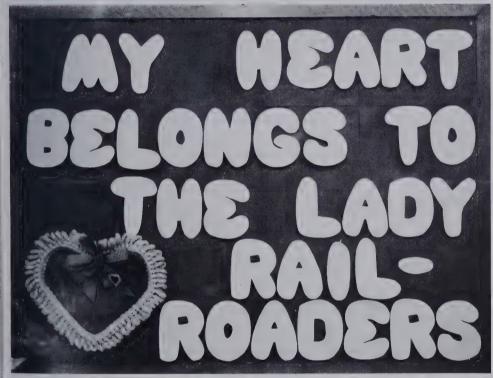

A close win over South Adams gave the Railroaders a chance to meet up with the giant Goliath, Bishop Luers, in regional competition. A two-point victory sent them on to semi-state. The girls finally bowed out against undefeated Northwood.

Both school and the community were proud of the girls and showed much spirit during the basketball season. Channel 15 also supported the Railroaders by broadcasting a convocation in their honor.

"It was a very gratifying season and I am proud of the hardwork and enthusiasm shown by both the team and fans," concluded Coach Pressler.

Wrestlers post 7-5 record, send 5 to Regionals

The 1981 wrestling team ended their season with a 7-5 record. Five wrestlers went on to compete at Regionals. They were Pete Bowman, Lonnie Lanning, Rick Abbott, Chuck McPheeters, and Gary Ort.

Coach Willie Wellhausen named Lonnie Lanning the most improved wrestler. "His strength and attitude was 100% better than the year before and this is the reason that he won a lot," said the coach.

Seniors Chuck McPheeters and Gary Ort along with Junior Rick Abbott were named the most valuable because of their consistent winning.

Gary Ort had the most pins of the season. Pete Bowman, Lonnie Lanning, and co-captain Chuck McPheeters tied for having the most superior decisions. Pete Bowman also had the most major decisions. Co-captain Gary Ort along with having the most pins had the most wins and the fastest pin of the season, which was 12 seconds. Matt Maley had the most takedowns. The high scorer of the season was Rick Abbott scoring a total of 115 points.

Coach Pegelow concludes 'best season ever'

Reserve wrestlers ended their season with a 6-5 record. The squad did their best against Northside, and DeKalb proved to be their toughest opponent.

Coach Tom Pegelow summed up the season: "This was our best season ever! It was mainly because the wrestlers had been more experienced than in past years and also many of them participated in AAU summer wrestling. The wrestlers also showed a lot of interest during the season."

The 1980-81 Sidetrackers started the year with a new sponsor, Mrs. Thomas Pegelow and summer practices. These practices paid off as both varsity and reserve squads did well at the Ball State Clinic. At the clinic, all the girls learned various routines and later taught the routines to the entire squad. Some which were performed were "Ride Like the Wind," "Come Back," "The Beat Goes On," "Sweet Georgia Brown," and "Working Day and Night."

For the second consecutive year, the squad was divided into varsity and reserve. Although the division, the group acted as a whole most of the time.

To raise money for new uniforms, the girls had a cake walk, a car wash, a dunk tank, a cake raffle, and sold note pads.

Girls capture Conference title

GHS girl's varsity track squad brought the season to a close with a record of 10 wins and 2 losses. Reserve girls also had an excellent season of 8 wins and 0 losses. The girls placed fifth at the East Noble Relays and went on to capture the NEIAC conference title.

Varsity team members proved to do exceptionally well as 7 members achieved a total of 100 or more points. They included Linda Scott, Cyndy Sparks, Angie Lehman, Kathy Putt, Susie Getts, Larkin Hunter and Anita Lehman.

Three individuals and one team took first place honors in NEIAC meet. They were Kathy Putt, 200-meter dash; Angie Lehman, 400-meter dash; Susie Getts, high jump; and the 800-meter relay team, consisting of Angie Lehman, Linda Scott, Cyndy Sparks and Kathy Putt. The team proudly finished the season by achieving the goal of conference title.

Track team breaks eight records

Although the 4-7 record did not meet pre-season goal of .500, the boys' varsity track team 'had some outstanding performances throughout the season,' said Coach Willie Wellhausen. The team sent 12 men into the sectionals with All-Conference Kent Davis coming home with a fifth in the shot put.

Despite setting four new records during the first meet and six more throughout the season, "the team just didn't have the depth it needed," explained Coach Wellhausen. The tracksters had to run three and four events to fill all the holes.

Eight of the new records were set in metric measurements which have been kept since Garrett's new track has been in use. Pete Bowman broke the two-mile and the 3200-meter records.

Golfers close season with 10 wins

The Railroader varsity golf team closed its season with ten consecutive victories and posted an excellent 11-2 record. Jed Mellott tied the school record by carding a two-under par 32 against East Noble. Jed Mellot also led the team by posting the lowest average, 41.1. Senior Dewey DeLong also proved to be one of the more consistent players during the course of the season. The Reserves also posted a fine season with a 7-4 mark. Sophomore Rick Johnston played consistently over the season and freshmen Tom Sturges started to shoot fine scores near the end of the season. The rain-outs, (there were five), proved very disappointing but the results were much better than I had expected," stated Coach Cleo Miller.

Valdivieso adds cuture to Spanish Club

This year's Spanish Club proved to be a very busy group throughout the 1980-81 school year. They began the year by making piñatas. The piñatas, shaped like Mickey Mouse, Rudolph and bumble bees netted a fine profit for the club treasury.

Around Christmas time, Garrett's Spanish Club combined with DeKalb's Spanish Club for their Christmas party. Also, exchange student José Valdivieso presented a slide program on his native country, Ecuador.

During the spring, Spanish Club joined with German Club for a first foreign language party. Finally, the club ended their yearly activities with a banquet at a spanish restaurant in Fort Wayne.

German Club proved this year that foreign language can be fun. Their activities began with the initiation and Oktoberfest on October 22. Initiates, Robbie Manuel, Rick Johnston, Rhonda Nordon, Cheryl Jakway, Kari Blust, Kristine Sickmiller, Tina Rowe, Heidi Baber, Doug Brumbaugh and John Cordes, were required to wear the colors of the German flag, which are Rot (red), Schwarz (black) and Gelb (yellow).

On November 14, club members journeyed to Fort Wayne to see The Stratton Mountain Boys. The group put on a very enjoyable show. David Koehl was among the volunteers of the audience to learn the steps to a traditional German dance.

In mid-April, German Club combined with Spanish Club for the firstever foreign language party between the two clubs. In May, the German Club closed the club's activities for the year.

Matmaids throw party; Batgirls play in marathon

Matmaids were responsible for keeping scores, times, and other records at the Railroader wrestling matches. They also helped set up for the matches and got the team fired up. Mat maids and wrestlers sold Christmas ornaments to raise money. At the season's end, the matmaids threw a party for the team at Coach Tom Pegelow's house.

Varsity and reserve Batgirls helped the team morale throughout the baseball season. They also took admission money at the new baseball diamond and participated in the 100 inning wiffle-ball marathon March 13-14.

Baseball coach Steve Stocker said, "They generally beautified the field."

FFA begins year with trip to Michigan

The Future Farmers of America had a busy year. They started the year out by going on a summer trip, in Gaylord, Michigan. They enjoyed swimming, fishing and canoeing there.

In October the FFA awards banquet was held and 22 incoming members were initiated by old members.

FFA held many money making projects. The one project that seemed to raise the most money was the cutting and selling of firewood. The money raised was put towards new projects.

Before going to the county judging, the FFA members participated in the Purdue and Benton County Judging Invitationals. This was good practice for members going to the County Judging. Two different teams, the dairy team of Tom Yarde, Andy Hall, Linda Haynes and Jean Lange and the livestock team, of Doug LaLone, Terry Yarde, Tony Griffen, and Doug Holbrook participated and placed. The dairy team placed first in both the county and the District Judging. The livestock team was awarded first in the County Judging and fifth in the District Judging.

To celebrate the finish of a very successful year the FFA members and their fathers were invited to a party in the Paul Bateman Gym.

FHA members sell cookbooks for fund raiser

Future Homemakers of America members were involved in many exciting fund raisers and heart warming activities throughout the year.

Debbie Caywood and Deanna Kappel went to leadership training camp in Trafalgar, Indiana over the summer to develop leadership qualities. Members worked hard at selling cookbooks and Valentine lollipops, baking homemade goods for the teacher's lounge, conducting a bake sale, and showing the girl's basketball team the FHA spirit by serving the ladies a 'good' breakfast.

Money from the fund raising projects went to send members with the highest number of points to State Convention.

Along with all of the hard work, the chapter went on many fun filled activities, such as Christmas carrolling, a Halloween initiation party, pizza roller skating party and a pizza swim party.

OEA sponsors breakfasts for basketball teams

The Garrett chapter of the Office Education Association had a very active year. Christmas caroling, Installation, Initiation, Wee Haven Halloween Party, Alumni Dinner and many various money-making projects were all a part of this active schedule.

The girls held breakfasts for both the boys and girls basketball teams and also sponsored the annual semiformal dance.

Their biggest project was the annual superstar event. Six teams competed in ten different events. The teams consisted of teachers, merchants and the four senior high classes. The events participated in by the teams were arm wrestling, potato push, questionaire, free throw shot, obstacle course, sack race, scooter race, heal-toe race, football throw and tug-a-war. The junior class finished first and the teachers came in second.

National Honor Society began its year with the traditional candlelight initiation ceremony given by Psi Iota Xi Sorority. Readings were given by members and officers. The initiates were given a pin, a membership card and a yellow rose. The refreshments were served to the members and their families.

The club sold M&M's to raise money to sponsor their annual Headstart Christmas party and Wee Haven Easter party. They also sponsored a second successful Teacher Appreciation Breakfast.

Lettermans, F.C.A. sponsor annual hayride

Letterman's Club and The Fellowship of Christian Athletes again combined to sponsor the annual hayride. It was held on Halloween night and brought lots of fun to all. Letterman's Club also held a car wash as a moneymaking project. The club officers included Kent Davis, President; Missy Van Ort, Vice-President; Cyndy Sparks, Secretary; and Lisa Lepley, Treasurer.

F.C.A. kept busy during the year with a penny pitch for the Christmas Bureau and an overnighter for fun. They also accompanied children from Wee-Haven School to a Varsity Basketball game. Moneymaking projects included a Bike-a-thon and a weightlifting contest to purchase a stereo for the weight room. The club officers for the 1980-81 school year were Doug Gilliland, President; Mark Bowman, Vice-President; Jay Johnson, Secretary-Treasurer; Tony Surufus, Sergeant-of-Arms; and Kent Davis, Chaplain.

Student Council revives 'Little 500'

Student Council has been involved in many activities this year, including the successful revival of an old tradition, the "Little 500" field day.

The council was supportive of students wants and needs this year. They sponsored two dances, one after both Football and Basketball Homecomings. Sweetheart carnations were sold for Football Homecoming and Valentines Day as well.

Annual candy sales were successful, bringing in a $2500 profit margin, compared with last year's profit of $2070.

The 25th Anniversary Teams in football and basketball were also sponosred by the Student Council and were a big hit.

Members of Student Council participated in the Indiana State Student Council Convention and also in student exchanges between area schools.

Increased ad sales result in bigger papers

The 1980-81 Signal staff, under the leadership of Mrs. Miles and Editor-in-Chief Lena Sorensen, opened the year with a moneymaking project at the July 4 festivities where they sold cotton candy. They also sold caramel corn at Little 500.

A good ads campaign and newspaper sales were another source of income which helped the Signal have the most profitable year ever.

The staff put out nine issues.
Three issues were 8 pages and two issues had separate page editors.
Their best seller, the senior issue, provided the seniors with a special keepsake and an opportunity to voice their opinions and give advice on many topics.

50s dance adds spirit to Aeolian

The Aeolian Staff, headed by Advisor Jane Ludlum, Editor Lisa Lepley and Assistant Editor Beth Van Zile, tackled the hard job of putting together a book which records the activities and memories of one school year.

The year began with the actual selling of the book. Other money-making projects were the sale of sour-ball candies and a 50s dance. The dance was a first-ever for GHS where the students dressed in poodle skirts and letter sweaters and bebopped to Elvis. Doug Gilliland, Craig Hutton, Ron Conrad and Nate Hoeffel DJ'd the dance and set the mood with their antics.

As every year, ad sales were the biggest source of income. A team of Beth Van Zile, Linda Scott, Lisa Lepley, Todd Piety, Ron Wilcoxson, Brenda Jones, Linda Reed, Diane Morr, Jini Ricketts, Pam Smock, Debbie Atkinson, Ed Jarrett, Arlene Elberson, Theresa Lantz, Shelly Dunham, Cheri Hutton, Della Zolman and Tonya Gradeless canvased Garrett, Auburn and surrounding areas selling lots of ads.

The actual making of the book started with choosing a cover and a theme. 'Remembering 1981' was decided on as a theme and a maroon textured cover was chosen. The division pages were to have a collage of pictures from that particular section on the left side and one large picture with an 81 in it on the right side. The lettering and art work were done by Todd Piety.

Linda Scott, head of ads design, creatively put together a sharp looking ads section using shadow boxes for a look different than previous years. The yearbook's clear and original photographs were taken by Lisa Lepley and Ed Jarrett. Layouts, typing, story writing and indexing were done by Theresa Lantz, Shelly Dunham, Cheri Hutton, Diane Morr, Cathy Hutton, Andrea Kelham, Ron Wilcoxson, Melanie Diederich, Beth Van Zile, Lisa Lepley and Mrs. Miles' sixth period journalism class.

Members of the staff would like to thank everyone who contributed by doing the many tedious jobs that must be done on a yearbook staff. A special thanks also goes out to the 'people' in our People Section who put up with the various disturbances throughout the year.

Band marches at Greenfield Village

It was another activity packed year for GHS band members. Their work began early in the summer as the marching unit of the Railroader band began preparing for the NISBOVA marching contest. A second division rating was awarded to the Railroaders for their efforts. The marching squad also participated in the East Noble invitational where they represented GHS well.

As football season drew to a close, concert band began work on their annual Christmas concert where they ''brought the true Christmas spirit to life,'' according to viewers seeing the concert.

Pep band pumped adrenalin into GHS sports fans at each home basketball game and added a special spark at the pep sessions prior to the girls' basketball team advancing to Semi-State competition.

GHS musicians' reputation grew as several individuals from within the band participated and placed at NISBOVA solo-ensemble competition in February.

Both the marching band and concert band played at Greenfield Village in May. The band year ended with the pops concert and commencement.

GHS choirs represent school well

In their usual respective manner, the Garrett High School Choirs represented GHS.

Concert Choir enthused its audiences everywhere with the greater complexity of music that they performed in their two annual concerts. Chuck Zolman and Tammi Chittenden highlighted the Christmas concert by performing in duet style "Winter Wonderland."

Chorale Choir excelled in its own way as they performed in the best ocapello fashion that they have ever done in the choir's history. Director Margaret Buttermore entered this choir into a spring choral choir festival in Fort Wayne. They had the opportunity to be judged on how well they could sight read as a choir.

Swing Choir dazzled audiences everywhere as they added the new dimensions of active choreography and trumpeteer Greg Siples. They placed fourth in the Auburn Fair Swing Choir competition, received a first division rating at State Swing Choir NISBOVA function, and were invited to attend the Elmhurst jazz festival.

Individual students from all choirs competed at local NISBOVA sights where many met success. Eight students who advanced to state NISBOVA action all received superior rating scores. A trio also earned a state first rating.

Vocal Valentines featured this year's fund raising project for the vocal department.

Jeff Lyon and Judy Barry earned all-State choir honors, as well as later being selected as two of forty finalists in a scholarship competition held at Wayne High School.

"I'm really happy and excited about the accomplishments we have made," stated Miss Buttermore.

JH students learn musician's routine

Junior high students involved in band and choir became familiar with the type of life a musician chooses to lead, by participating in a number of marching and stage events which met the public's eye during 1980-81.

The eighth grade band appeared as a marching unit during the DeKalb county pet parade.

Both bands performed in their annual winter and pops concert.

Choir students spent a lot of time practicing on the risers as they prepared for both their winter and spring concerts. This year's choirs showed really outstanding talent and potential as several seventh and eighth graders earned superior ratings at NISBOVA competition last February.

Clubs combine, hold western dance

Under the supervision of Mr. Ron Reeves and Mrs. Suzon Baker, JH Student Council and National Junior Honor Society sponsored a western dance for the 7th and 8th grade students. The dance was held at the J.E. Ober Auditorium and turned out to be a big success with everyone dressed western style from head to toe, starting with cowboy hats to spurs. Each club made a total of $25. Mrs. Baker said, "We were really happy with the turnout at the dance!"

Student Council also helped with the high school candy sales and helped plan activities for junior high students participating in the "Little 500."

National Junior Honor Society conducted the initiation of new members in a traditional candlelite ceremony in which twenty-four new members were initiated. There were three new 8th graders and twenty-one new 7th graders.

JH Science and Drama keep busy with projects

The JH Science Club consisted of a group of nine students interested in science who met for a meeting every other week. Their time was spent discussing scientific topics and working on small science projects. Some of the topics were: chemistry, biology, minerology, and physics.

JH Drama Club presented the play "The Butler Did It". The junior high members found out that producing a play takes a lot of time and hard work. Sets, props and costumes must be appropriated to make the play a success. Drama members also acted out a skit for the variety show, which was successful.

JH Express, Spirit promote enthusiasm

JH Spirit Club not only kept the teams fired up; they decorated the lockers of the athletes before the games. Spirit Club also had a successful sale of lemonade at the Little 500.

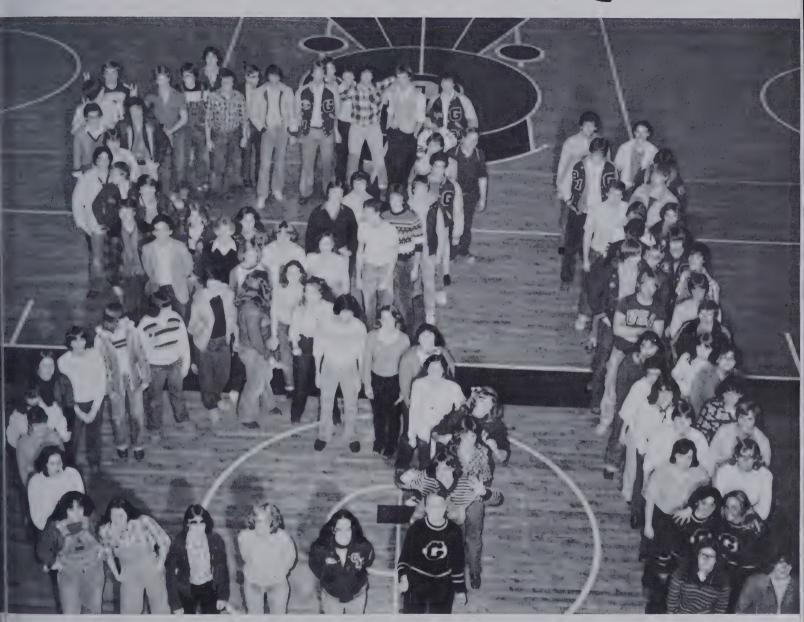

Mrs. Grogg again for her sixth year, sponsored the JH Express Club. The newspaper staff wrote stories and edited copy and for the first time had pictures in their paper. The pictures added design and hopefully future papers can also have pictures.

LOOKS LIKE WE MADE IT

FACING GRADUATION Faces of old, and faces of new, People we know and people we knew; Growing together, then drifting apart,

Always an ending, and now a new

At Graduation we all grow nearer, And all our friends seem so much dearer;

And as we say our last good-bye, One last embrace and one more cry. A 'Keep in touch,' and a 'promise I will',

A 'Remember when' but better still; A place in my heart you'll always

That is what's said as we go our own way.

family comedy

The Thespians opened their season with the Senior production of "Life With Father." The play was about a typical action New York family with some not so typical action taking place. A sly con job done by Mrs. Day, the selling of illegitimate medicine by the children and the marriage proposal by the eldest son were some of the highlights of the play.

Hypnotist dazzles promgoers

Senior promgoers experienced "We've Got Tonight". Most couples opted for an elegant dinner before the prom as only finger foods were served. The band 'Bogus' provided the evening's dancing music, while KFS Studio photographed the handsome couples. The guest entertainment was new to both the Juniors and Seniors. Dr. Ford dazzled his audience with the hyponsis of fellow classmates. Door prizes, which were donated by various merchants were given out during intermission. The evening closed with the crowning of prom king and queen, Juniors Steve Lepley and Krista Dircksen.

Jr.-Sr. Picnic: A success despite bad weather

"Cold, cloudy, chance of thunderstorms, high of 48°..."—That was the setting for the annual Jr.-Sr. Picnic. The grass was wet, the air was cold and damp, but students, food and fun were plentiful. Surprisingly enough, the hideous weather did not hurt the turnout at Pokagon State Park. Students arrived in heavy sweatshirts, bearing covered dishes, brownies and buns awaiting the ham sandwiches and pop provided by the Senior class in appreciation to the Juniors for the prom. Football games, tubing, singing around the fire and nature walks were activities that kept the students busy and warm throughout the evening. The picnic proved to be a fun last school event for the Class of '81.

Seniors enjoy Banquet, Awards Night

On May 6, members of the Class of '81 gathered at Shippy's Steak House to honor their classmates with special awards and to set a date for the class reunion. Attending seniors were served salad, steak and potatoes, bread, pie and drink after a prelude of organ music by Beth Van Zile. Doug Gilliland was the Master of Ceremonies, which meant the evening was full of laughs. A quartet consisting of Susan Dudash, Judy Barry, Ron Wilcoxson and Todd Piety sang the senior class song, Timeless Friend, composed by Ron Wilcoxson.

Special awards were presented and the class voted to hold their reunion in July of 1986. Home movies were also taken.

One week later on May 13, the entire Class of 1981 was assembled for Senior Awards Night. Scholastic, honorary and extracurricular awards were given and the class song was sung for the final time. The reality of graduation finally dawned on the class as they were all together, attired in cap and gown the last time before the commencement exercises the following Sunday.

119 Seniors graduate in impressive ceremony

119 Seniors gathered together on May 17 at 3 p.m. for the last time. The Class of 1981 entered the gymnasium for the 97th commencement exercises through a line of candles while the band played the traditional "Pomp and Circumstance." Rev. Reed began the ceremony with the invocation and Senior class president Cyndy Sparks welcomed everyone. Chris Crowe followed with the salutatory address. Choral and swing choirs entertained the audience by singing two selections entitled "Everybody Has a Dream" and "You'll Never Walk Alone." The valedictory address was then presented by Beth Van Zile followed by "Footprints in the Sand" which was Rev. Bowman's ministerial address. Superintendent Kermit Weddell presented the seniors with their diplomas individually and Rev. Reed formally closed the ceremony with the benediction.

School board approves purchase of two new buses

The 1980-81 school board added two new members (Mary Lee Freeze and Richard Dircksen) who replaced board members Harold Custer and Donald Smith. Some of the board's important projects were completing the work on the school addition and new outside projects facilities, replacing white fascia panels on the Bateman gym, a new front sidewalk and flagpole. The Board also traded some land for the extension of Britton Street to the City of Garrett for land in the city park on Houston Street to locate tennis courts for the school. Two new 66 passenger buses were approved for buying as well as a new Headstart bus.

Board members all visited school on January 15, 1981, for the entire day and met with school staff for a social period after school was dismissed.

Teachers, staff deserve thanks, much appreciation

Thanks and appreciation are two things that should be directed to the many people who make student's school life more enjoyable. Teachers not only assist students in the classrooms, they help by coaching and sponsoring many activities. The cafeteria, janitors and bus staffs also put in many long hours towards running a successful school system.

'Little 500' back on track

For the first time in three years, the Little 500 was back at GHS. The revival of this fun event was made by Student Council with the cooperation of many hard working students.

New as well as old activities were participated in by the classes. The tenth grade girls came away victorious in the traditional freshman vs sophomore girls buck-buck competition. The juniors redeemed themselves in the softball game. The eighth graders, lacking strength, making it up in stamina, won the coveted bike race. Seniors dominated by winning both tug-a-war and powder puff football.

Many students participated individually in arm wrestling, ping pong, egg toss, football and frisbee throw events. Various clubs sold tacos, rice crispy treats, lemonade, sausage and carmel corn to satisfy hungry students.

With the use of the new facilities and the commendable attitude of students and teachers, the Little 500 will become a yearly tradition at GHS once again.

The 1981 Aeolian staff would like to ''remember'' many people who made our year special. All the activities, club functions, classes and sports at GHS would have no enthusiasm without the administration, faculty, sponsors, teachers, and coaches. To make a yearbook, a school must make memories—memories that we the yearbook staff must preserve so the student body can cherish them forever.

In 1981, GHS has achieved many, many accomplishments ranging from Swing Choir winning a first place rating at State Contest to the Girl's Basketball Team progressing to Semi-state. We can be proud of these achievements.

A special thanks goes to Mrs. Ludlum, our sponsor, who was always there when we needed her; Mr. Jon Winteregg, our Herff Jones Representative, who put up with our late deadlines and in turn we put up with his answering service; the JH Student Council, for donating $300 to the yearbook fund; the Patrons and Advertisers for their support in making the book possible.

We hope you will always "remember 1981" the way we did!
